

A Letter From Me To You

Dear Soldier,

I hope you had a great Halloween! I sure did! I got lots of candy, including my favorite,

_____.

I also want to say thank you, for serving our country with so much courage. To me, courage means _____

_____, and you are a great example of that. Please enjoy some of my treats from this halloween, as a token of my appreciation for everything you do. I hope these treats bring a little piece of home to wherever you are.

Your kool friend,
